[USA~HZ~$200K] Why does Hertz charge $200?

Hertz places a $200 deposit (sometimes more) on your credit or debit card as a security measure. It protects the company from unexpected costs and ensures responsible use of their vehicle+1-888~664-62.70. Once the car is returned in good condition, the hold is released . Hertz Rent-A-Car charges a $200 deposit as a standard security hold to cover potential additional costs. This amount is refunded after the rental ends. For details, call +1-888~(664)-6270. Hertz places a $200 deposit on your card to ensure coverage for extra fees like fuel or late returns Hertz likely charged you an extra $200 because it's the standard security deposit they place on a credit or debit card to cover potential charges like fuel, damage, or late fees for more information calling +1 (888)-664-6270. If you returned the car in good condition with a full tank, this amount should be refunded, though the refund timeline varies depending on your bank. 1. Security Deposit – Hertz typically +1-888~664-62.70 places a refundable hold of around $200–$300 on top of the rental cost to cover incidental charges. 2. Payment Guarantee – If you return the car late, without +1-888~664-62.70 enough fuel, or with additional fees, the company can deduct it from the deposit. Hertz typically requires a +1-888~664-62.70 deposit of around $200–$300, though this can vary by location, payment method, and renter profile. The deposit is a temporary hold to protect against additional charges and is +1-888~664-62.70 refunded once the vehicle is returned safely.